nensem, but they draw rations as well.

Abanghat By the Po mosa. Shanghai dates to the 9th instant are at hand. The Shanghai Recorder A correspondent at Chinking writes to us under date of 7th instant, that on the 6th the Nienfei approached within a very short distance of that port and that the greatest excitement prevailed in consequence. News arrived that they had sacked . Isien-nü-minu, about 17 miles from Chinkiang, and then started on their way to Yungchow, about six miles north of which place an engagement took place between them and the Imperialiats, which was first reported as a success to the Nienfei, but afterwards stated to have resuited in favour of the Imperialists. On the news reaching Chinking on the 6th, the sait junks which lie on the Bank of the River directly pposite that city, were ordered to anchor some fifteen miles up the river on the south side, but this order was next day countermended. The latest news to given by our correspondent as The Nienfei have retired about 190 if from here now to a place called Tien-chang, so much : of the panic has subsided. The junks therefore will remain bere. . The rebels have taken a great deal of spoil in the shape of opinic, sycce and clothes.

The engagement at Yan chow which took place yesterday morning is finally reported to have been a success for the Imperialists, at any rate the rebels retired. Their numbers have been very much over-stated—and we shall perhaps shortly know that only a few hundreds were engaged on this raid. However, the road from the north seems open for them. They will probably leave this country for a white, but there is no knowing when they will return. The soldiery, i.e. city-carrison, &c., such as they are, have been moving over to the north Bank, but Isbould judge from their appearance that they would be little or no use if sugaged with the robers. They were all variously armed with offensive weapons, but above all, every man carried his umbrella as the weather is wet. In the Evening Express of the 8th we read: Per Osaka from Nagasiki, to day, we learn that up to 8 P.M. Saturday last, the hour of her departure, the Cista Rica had not arrived there. A rumor, which was apparently well authenticated, was current, to the effect that Prince Toza's Admiral and two other high Officers of that Daimio, had been assessinabed, and if this proves correct, it was looked upon as the commengement of that civil war, which the proe posed opening of the ports has remicred so imminent. The British schooner Belle left for New York with a full cargo of tea, on the 27th y ultimo, and on the 29th, the Fre-long departed c for Hiogo, where it was expected she would on remain from two to three weeks. She must not e therefore be looked for here again until the end of the month, if then. The str. Whampon left Office on the campaign of last year has appeared at last, under the title of "The Struggles of Austria in the year 1866. Prepared in accordance with the documents issued during the campaign by the Imperial Royal Office of the General Staff." The first volume only, containing the history of the war up to the battle of Langensa'z, has as yet been published. The most interesting portion of this volume is a meinior by General Krismanic, dated April, 1866, describing the plan of operations for the corps d'arusie of the North, of which the leading ider is that the Northern division of the Austrian army "must of necessity keep on the defensive, however lamentable such necessity. may be." There are also a map of the theatre ant of the war, another, showing the operations of he the Northern Army, a third illustrating the ith battle of Langensalza, and fifteen appendices, showing the military strongth of the Prussian and Austrian armies at various periods of the campaign, the navel strength of Italy and Austria, the position of the belligerents in farch and Jone, and documents illustrative I the Hanoverian campaign. The preface of the work concludes in these words:-" It is are true that the publication of this book is some-The what premature; but it is necessary that it should be distributed among the troops as soon as possible, in order that they might learn and know once for all in what manner they attained at the same time both to a great triumph and a great defeat."

Hougkong, Saturday Evening.

There has been no change in the Drug market to-day. The inquiry has been moderate, and sides of Patria effected at $6571 to $660 on rish and credit terms, and $6561 by the speenlabors on three weeks time, to a small extent. Some brokers go about hawking orders at low nutra, but as soon as a buyer is found the seller s him discopeared, and it appears that these are the meaning of questionable at unling; for a small consideration, such as perhaps $2.00 per chest. One of these parties who a short time h and since had to clear out on account of some little ad a freegularity, has again made his appearance on. the nurket as a "broker." Old Patna of the 1st sale has changed bands at $6621 on three weeks time to arrive. Nothing has been done in new Drug. Benares has been placed at $652; to $556; on cash and eredit terms. Small holders are pretty nearly cleared out of the Drug. There are buyers at 3555 on line, but no sellers. In Malwa little has been doing, Deng at $700 to $705. To-day's closing rates 9524 to 36574; Malwa, 3700 to 3705.
